CLIMATE

The end of spring is an excellent season to visit South of France.

Temperature is not too warm and light dressing would be appropriate, short sleeves during the day and evening. Medium day temperature should be around 24 degrees centigrade.

TELEPHONE

The international dial code for France is +33.

For international calls: dial 00 followed by the country code and the individual telephone number.

For cellular phone: refer to the instruction of your provider.

Sanitary Emergency number: 15
General Emergency number: 18

CURRENCY

The standard currency is EURO; most banks are open daily from Monday to Friday from 9:00 to 16:00. Many restaurants and most shops accept all international credit cards; in any case exchange of major currencies is possible at the airport and in banks.
